Billing Rights

Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your Cardholder Agreement

How We Calculate Variable Rates

We calculate variable APRs by adding a margin of 19.99% – 32.99% for Purchases and Balance Transfers and 29.99% – 32.99% for Cash Advances to the Prime Rate. The “Prime Rate” is the highest U.S. Prime Rate published in the Money Rates section of The Wall Street Journal two business days (not weekends or federal holidays) before the first day of your billing cycle. The APR may increase or decrease each month if the Prime Rate changes. Any new rate will be applied as the first day of your next billing cycle after the Prime Rate has changed. If the APR increases, you will pay a higher interest charge and may pay a higher minimum payment. The Prime Rate is simply a reference index and is not the lowest interest rate available. If The Wall Street Journal stops publishing the Prime Rate, we will select a similar reference rate.

Daily Periodic Rates

The daily periodic rates for your Purchase and Balance Transfer APRs is , Cash Advance APR is and Pay Over Time Plan APR is .

Replacement Card Fee

We have the right to charge you a replacement card fee of up to $40 per card (or such lesser amount as required by law) each time you request a replacement card.

YOUR CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT INCLUDES AN ARBITRATION AGREEMENT.
PLEASE SEE BELOW FOR DETAILS.

ROBINHOOD GOLD VISA® CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT

This Robinhood Gold Visa® Cardholder Agreement, together with your Robinhood Gold Visa® Rates and Fees Table, Arbitration Agreement, Rewards Program Terms and credit card application (collectively, this “Agreement”) govern the use of the Robinhood Gold Visa® Credit Card (“Card”) and related credit account (“Account”). All of the separate documents governing the Account, and any future changes we may make to this Agreement, are part of this Agreement. Please read this Agreement and retain a copy for your records. You accept this Agreement, and it becomes effective, if you do not cancel your Account within 30 days after receiving a Card. You also accept this Agreement if and when you (or a person authorized by you) make a transaction using the card. Your use of the Card is your consent to be bound by the terms of this Agreement.

The Card is issued by Coastal Community Bank, pursuant to a license from Visa U.S.A. Inc. Coastal Community Bank is the creditor and Card issuer. As used in this Agreement, “we,” “us,” and “our” mean Coastal Community Bank, and any assignee of its rights. The words “you” and “your” mean all persons responsible for complying with this Agreement, including the applicant, the cardholder, any guarantor and the person to whom we address Account statements.

You are required to obtain and maintain a Robinhood Gold (“Gold”) membership in order to open a Card account. Robinhood Gold is offered through Robinhood Gold, LLC (RHG) and is a subscription offering premium services available for a cost. If you cancel your Gold subscription, you are also required to close your Card account.

Where applicable, this Agreement supplements but does not replace the Robinhood Financial LLC and Robinhood Securities, LLC (collectively, “Robinhood”) Customer Agreement or the Robinhood Gold Agreement (collectively, “Customer Agreements”). In the event of an inconsistency between this Agreement and the Customer Agreements, this Agreement shall govern and control your use of the Robinhood Gold Visa® Credit Card and your relationship with the Bank.

Use of the Card and Account

You may use the Card to make transactions only for personal, family or household purposes from any person or establishment accepting the Card (each such transaction, a "Purchase"), to obtain cash advances from us or obtain cash or cash equivalents (each such transaction, a "Cash Advance") and to take advantage of other features of the Card. Cash Advances include, but are not limited to: (a) obtaining funds through an automated teller machine (ATM) or a financial institution; (b) purchasing a wire transfer, money order, foreign currency, precious metals, cryptocurrency, travelers checks or stored value load; (c) making a payment using a third party service or any other transaction that is a cash equivalent, including Peer-to-Peer (P2P) transfers; (d) purchasing lottery tickets, casino gaming chips (whether physical or digital), race track wagers or similar betting transactions including transactions on gambling apps or websites; or (e) engaging in any similar transaction. This card is not designed for business or commercial use.

If your account is eligible for balance transfers, you can find information on how to transfer balances in the Robinhood Credit Card app.

You agree to use the Card and Account only for legal and lawful purposes. Neither the Card nor the Account may be used for the purpose of paying us on this or any other form of credit account you may have with us or another merchant. If you do use your Card for any such purpose, you will be in default under this Agreement and we may block such transactions and/or terminate your Account, but you still will be liable to us for all charges relating to such transactions and all other transactions on your Account at the time it is closed.

We reserve the right to deny any Purchase at any time for any reason. The Card is designed for personal use for purchases of consumer goods and services, and we reserve the right to decline transactions that we believe, in our sole discretion, are not made for that purpose. We also reserve the right to restrict use of the cards to certain categories of consumer transactions based on factors such as the type of merchant, good, or service involved. We will not be liable to you (or anyone else) if any merchant or other person cannot or will not process a purchase permitted under this Agreement. Unless prohibited by applicable law, we may from time to time limit or restrict the type, number and dollar amount of any purchase, even if you have sufficient available credit to complete the purchase. We may also limit or restrict the merchants or terminals where you may use your Account or Card. We may change these limits or restrictions from time to time in our sole discretion. We are not responsible for any losses you incur if we do not authorize a charge.

Pay Over Time

We may make Pay Over Time available to you, at our discretion. Pay Over Time is a feature of your Account that allows you to create a plan to pay for eligible Purchases in a fixed number of payments (a "Pay Over Time Plan" or a "POT Plan"). POT Plan balances are subject to interest not to exceed the Purchase APR (and may be a promotional or non-variable rate). Your ability to use Pay Over Time will depend on the amount of your available credit, creditworthiness, and other factors. We may terminate or suspend your ability to use Pay Over Time at any time for any reason. We may limit the number of active POT Plans you may have and we may change this number at any time. An eligible Purchase for a POT Plan must be a Purchase of at least a specified dollar amount and does not include a Purchase already subject to promotional or introductory terms or a Purchase that is the subject of a dispute. Other exclusions may apply, as provided within the POT Plan creation experience. The POT Plan Payment Amount (defined below), duration, and APR for a POT Plan will be disclosed to you at the time you create the POT

Plan. The eligible Purchase you select to create a POT Plan will be converted to the POT Plan balance on the day after you create the POT Plan (the “POT Plan Start Date”). The POT Plan durations offered to you are at our discretion. You may not change or cancel a POT Plan after it has been created. We have the right to cancel a POT Plan and add the balance of any canceled POT Plan to the Purchase balance, in our discretion, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Authorized Users

You may request that we issue an additional card to someone authorized by you to access and use your account (an “Authorized User”). There may be fees associated with adding and maintaining Authorized Users on your account; see website and App for details.

We reserve the right to refuse to add any individual to your Account as an Authorized User in our sole discretion. If we approve, use of your Account by an Authorized User is subject to the terms of this Agreement. You must obtain permission from each Authorized User before naming him or her as an Authorized User on your Account and make a copy of this Agreement available to each Authorized User. You must notify us to remove an Authorized User from your Account. You are responsible for paying us for all charges incurred by each Authorized User or by others authorized by an Authorized User, including all fees and charges resulting therefrom, even if the post date shown on your statement for that transaction occurs after the date you ask us to remove the Authorized User from your Account.

You and any Authorized Users added by you will be considered a single “Account” for purposes of the Robinhood Card Rewards Program. Please see the Rewards Program Rules for more details.

By adding an Authorized User to your Account, you allow us to discuss your Account with an Authorized User. This includes giving them access to your Account information and history. You also agree that an Authorized User may use and receive information about the Account the same way you do. You agree to give us certain personal information about each Authorized User. You must let each one know that you’ll give us that information and you must have his or her permission to do so. You must have permission from each one to allow us to share information about him or her as allowed by applicable law. This includes information we may get from you, any Authorized User and others. It also includes information about their transactions on the Account. Authorized Users may remove themselves from your Account upon request. We reserve the right to remove them from your account for any reason.

We may report information about this Account to credit bureaus in the Authorized User’s name that may appear on their credit report. This could include information about late payments, overlimit amounts, returned payments or other violations of this Agreement. You must let each Authorized User know that we may report Account information in his or her name.

Promise to Pay

You promise to pay us for all amounts charged to the Account, including all transactions, interest, fees and charges charged to your Account. You are obligated to repay us for all transactions made using your Card by an Authorized User or by other people you or an Authorized User have authorized to use the Card even if their use of the Card exceeds the authorization given to them. If you let someone else use your Card, you are responsible for all transactions that person makes.

Servicer

Robinhood Credit, Inc. (“Robinhood Credit”), along with its partners and service providers, is the servicer of your Card and Account. In that capacity, Robinhood Credit may act on our behalf, perform our obligations, or enforce our rights under this Agreement. Robinhood Credit is a wholly owned subsidiary of Robinhood Markets, Inc.

Credit Limits

We will assign a maximum amount of credit to your account (your “Credit Limit”), and post it on your monthly billing statement. We may cancel, change or restrict your Credit Limit at any time. Each transaction is considered for approval on an individual basis, including those above the Credit Limit. We may not approve all transactions. At our discretion, and subject to applicable law, we may change your Credit Limit at any time without advance notice to you. Part of your Credit Limit may be available for Cash Advances, and there may be a limit on the amount of Cash Advances you can take in a given period. We may change that limit from time to time, with or without notice, at our sole discretion. See “Use of the Card and Account” above for a list of transaction types that will be considered Cash Advances.

Payments

Minimum Payment. Your Account will be on a monthly billing cycle. Each billing cycle, you must pay at least the minimum payment amount (“Minimum Payment”) by the payment due date shown on your billing statement (“Payment Due Date”). Your Minimum Payment for each billing cycle includes: (1) 1% of the total amount you owe us at the end of the billing cycle (“New Balance”) (excluding any new interest charges and POT Plan Balances), (2) new interest charges, and (3) any amount due on a POT Plan (a “Pay Over Time Plan Payment Amount” or “POT Plan Payment Amount”). Your Minimum Payment will not be less than $25.00 or your New Balance, whichever is less. We round the Minimum Payment up to the nearest dollar.

If you make a payment greater than your Minimum Payment, this does not affect your obligation to make the Minimum Payment due on the next billing statement. Credits to your Account, such as from merchants, or statement credits in connection with the Rewards Program, are generally not considered payments and will not reduce your Minimum Payment.

Pay Over Time Plan Payment. The Minimum Payment will include any POT Plan Payment Amount each billing cycle. Your first POT Plan Payment Amount will be due in the billing cycle following the billing cycle in which the POT Plan Start date occurs. You must pay the POT Plan Payment Amount each billing cycle for so long as any balance remains in the POT Plan. The POT Plan Payment Amount is calculated at the time you create a POT Plan and is based on the amount of each Purchase selected to create the POT Plan, the number of payments in which you choose to pay the POT Plan balance in full, and the applicable interest rate. The POT Plan Payment Amount will never be more than the amount of the POT Plan balance, which includes any applicable interest.

When Payments Are Due. We must receive at least the Minimum Payment due on your Account by the Payment Due Date of each billing cycle. Payments received after the Payment Due Date will be credited as of our next business day. Sometimes the available credit on your Account may not reflect your payment for up to five (5) business days; this typically happens if utilization is high or if we suspect fraudulent activity on your Account. Nonetheless, we will credit your payment to your Account as of the business day that we receive it.

We may accept late payments, partial payments, or any payments marked or specially designated as being payment in full or as being similarly in settlement of any dispute, without losing any of our rights under this Agreement or under the law to collect all amounts due and payable on your Account. Our acceptance of such payments does not mean we agree to change this Agreement in any way.

Payment Options. You can pay online through your online account or by setting up automatic payments. Your payment must be made in U.S. dollars with a telephonic or electronic payment authorization.

Payment Allocation. We will apply the required Minimum Payment to balances on your Account using any method we choose, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Although your Minimum Payment will be applied in any order at our discretion, payments in excess of the Minimum Payment will be applied to balances with the highest Annual Percentage Rate (APR) first and then to lower rate balances in descending order of APR. This means that if you want to pay off a balance with a lower promotional APR, such as a POT Plan balance, you must first pay off all of your other balances with higher APRs. If your POT Plan APR is the same as your Purchase APR, payments in excess of the Minimum Payment will be applied to the Purchase balance first, and the POT Plan balance only after the entire Purchase balance is fully paid.

Calculation of Finance Charge and Average Daily Balance

Daily Periodic Rates

The daily periodic rates for Purchases, POT Plans, balance transfers, and Cash Advances are based on the APR for Purchases, POT Plans, balance transfers, and Cash Advances, respectively. The daily periodic rates for Purchases, balance transfers, and Cash Advances may be adjusted monthly. The current daily periodic rate for Purchases, POT Plans, Cash Advances, and balance transfers on your Account is calculated by taking the applicable APR divided by 365 ("Daily Periodic Rate").

How We Calculate Interest

We use the Average Daily Balance ("ADB") method (including new transactions) to calculate interest on your Account. We calculate the interest charge for each type of balance on your Account by applying the Daily Periodic Rate to the ADB. Then, we multiply this amount by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Interest charge = Daily Periodic Rate x ADB x number of days in the billing cycle.

The ADB for each balance on your Account is calculated separately, starting with the beginning balance on the first day of each billing cycle. The beginning balance on the first day of the billing cycle includes the following:

- The prior billing cycle's ending balance, which includes unpaid interest and any applicable unpaid fees posted to your Account in the prior billing cycle, and
- Any late payment fees posted in the current billing cycle that are related to a late payment in the prior billing cycle.

To get the ADB for each balance on your Account, we take the beginning balance each day and add any new transactions and fees. Then, we subtract any payments or credits. Except for the first day of each billing cycle, we add interest equal to the previous day's balance multiplied by the Daily Periodic Rate. (This means interest is compounded daily.) This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance that is a credit balance will be treated as zero. Then, we add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle. We divide this amount by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the ADB.

ADB = sum of daily balances ÷ number of days in the billing cycle.

When Interest Charges Begin

Your Payment Due Date is at least 21 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge you any interest on Purchases if you pay any POT Plan Payment Amount plus your New Balance, excluding any POT Plan balances (the "Adjusted Balance"), by the Payment Due Date each billing cycle. There is no grace period for Cash Advances, balance transfers, or POT plans. We will begin charging interest on Cash Advances and balance transfers on the transaction date or the first day of the billing cycle in which the transaction is posted to your Account, whichever is later. We will begin charging interest on POT Plans on the POT Plan Start Date until it is paid in full.

Preauthorized Recurring Merchant Transactions

You may authorize a merchant to automatically initiate a transaction on a recurring basis to your Account. Upon the issuance by us of a new Card with a new Account number or expiration date, you may be required to contact the merchant to provide such updated information in order to continue the recurring transactions. We may, but are not required to, provide updated information to the merchant at our discretion. It is your responsibility to contact the merchant if you want to cancel automatic billing.

Foreign Currency Transactions

If you make a transaction using your Account in a foreign currency (including, for example, online purchases from a merchant located outside of the U.S.), the transaction will be converted to U.S. dollars based on a rate selected by VISA U.S.A. Inc. (or any of its affiliates) from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date (which may vary from the rate VISA U.S.A. Inc. itself receives) or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The currency conversion rate used by VISA U.S.A. Inc. (or any of its affiliates) on the currency conversion date may differ from the exchange rate in effect on the day you made the transaction or on the day the transaction is posted to your Account.

Events of Default

Subject to applicable law, we may consider your Account in default at any time if: (1) you fail to pay at least the Minimum Payment by the Payment Due Date; (2) you attempt to engage in a transaction that exceeds the Credit Limit; (3) you make a payment that is returned unpaid to us for any reason; (4) you breach any term under this Agreement; (5) we determine that any statement made by you to us in connection with this Agreement or your credit card application was false or misleading; (6) you breach any terms under any other agreement that you have with us, Robinhood or with any of their affiliates; (7) you file for bankruptcy or some other insolvency proceeding is filed by or against you; (8) you are declared incompetent or mentally incapacitated, or in the event of your death; or (9) we have any reason to believe you may not be creditworthy.

Default Remedies

Upon your default and subject to any limitations or requirements of applicable law: (1) we may declare the entire amount you owe us immediately due and payable and/or suspend or cancel your Account privileges; and (2) you agree to pay all reasonable costs, including all court costs plus all reasonable attorneys' fees if we must refer your Account for collection to any attorney who is not our employee.

Entire Agreement

You acknowledge that this Agreement, as amended (which includes your Rates and Fees Table, Arbitration Agreement, Rewards Program Terms and credit card application) constitutes the entire agreement between you and us with respect to the Account and the Card, and supersedes and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous written or oral communication or understanding between you and us concerning the Account or the Card.

Waiver

Our failure to exercise any of our rights under this Agreement, or our waiver of our rights on any one occasion, shall not constitute a waiver of such rights on any other occasion. We will not lose our rights under this Agreement because we delay in enforcing any of them.

Customer Privacy

Our privacy policy is provided separately in accordance with applicable law and can also be viewed online at about.robinhood.com/legal.

Assignment

We may at any time and without notifying you, sell, transfer or otherwise assign your Account or any Account balances to any party at any time. You may not assign or transfer your Account or any of your rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any such assignment or transfer by you will be void.

Change of Terms

We may change the terms of this Agreement at any time, including any additions or deletions to the terms in this Agreement. These changes may apply to existing and future balances on your Account as of the effective date of the change to the extent permitted under applicable law. We will give you advance written notice of any change and a right to reject the change if required by law. We may require you to close your Account or take other actions if you reject the changes. Any change to any term of this Agreement will not excuse your obligation to pay all amounts owed under this Agreement.

Special Offers

At our option, we may make a special offer to you at any time. A special offer may apply for a limited period of time and may be extended to certain cardholders based on criteria that we may determine in our sole discretion. Each special offer will be governed by the terms of that offer and this Agreement. We will provide you the terms applicable to a special offer at the time we offer it to you. Special offer terms may temporarily modify certain terms of this Agreement for qualifying payments or transactions. All other terms of this Agreement remain unchanged. Any such special offer will not limit or affect any of our rights we have under this Agreement or applicable law.

Suspension/Revocation/Cancellation

Subject to applicable law, we may suspend, revoke or cancel your Account privileges, your right to use the Card, or deny any transaction, in our sole discretion at any time, with or without cause and with or without giving you notice. Any such actions on our part will not affect your obligation to pay us the outstanding balance, interest and fees under the terms of this Agreement. We are not liable for any refusal to honor your Card or Account, or for the retention of your Card by any person or entity. If we revoke or cancel the Card, you must destroy the Card or return the Card to us at our request. If a merchant that accepts Cards asks you to surrender an expired or revoked Card, you must do so. You may not use a Card after it has expired or after it has been revoked or canceled. You may cancel your Account at any time. If you ask us to cancel your Account but we believe you have continued to use your Account after the date of cancellation, we may consider such use as your request for reinstatement of your Account. We may then reinstate your Account. If applicable, we may charge you any annual fee associated with reinstating your Account.

Severability

Subject to the Arbitration Agreement: (1) if any part of this Agreement conflicts with applicable law, that law will control, and this Agreement will be considered changed to the extent necessary to comply with that law; and (2) if any part of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the remainder of this Agreement will remain in effect.

Either party may request that the matter be submitted to arbitration.

Claim

A "Claim" is any unresolved claim, dispute or controversy between you and us, whether past, present or future, arising out of or related to this Agreement, your Account, products or services governed by this Agreement or the relationships resulting from this Agreement or your Account. "Claim" has the broadest possible meaning, and includes initial claims, counterclaims, cross-claims and third-party claims. It includes disputes based upon contract, tort, consumer rights, fraud and other intentional torts, constitution, statute, regulation, ordinance, common law and equity (including any claim for injunctive or declaratory relief). Solely for purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, the terms "we," "us" and "our" also include any person or entity named as a co-defendant with us in a Claim asserted by you. Notwithstanding the foregoing, individual actions brought in small claims court (or your state's equivalent court) are ineligible for arbitration; however, if the action is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court, it shall be eligible for arbitration at either party's request.

Commencing an Arbitration

The party electing arbitration must notify the other of such election. This notice may be given before or after a lawsuit has been filed concerning the Claim or with respect to other Claims brought later in the lawsuit, and it may be given by papers filed in the lawsuit such as a motion to compel arbitration. If you elect arbitration you must notify us in writing at Robinhood Credit Inc., 548 Market Street, Suite 30684, San Francisco, CA 94104, Attn: Credit Card Arbitration. If we elect arbitration we will notify you in writing at your last known address on file.

Binding Arbitration

Binding arbitration is a means of having an independent third party (the arbitrator) resolve a dispute without using the court system, judges or juries. Either you or we can request binding arbitration. Each arbitration, including the selection of the arbitrator, shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), according to the Consumer Arbitration Rules of the AAA. A single arbitrator shall be appointed. If you have a question about the AAA, you can contact them as follows: American Arbitration Association, 1633 Broadway 10th Floor, New York, NY 10019,

1-800-778-7879, www.adr.org. If the AAA is unable to serve as administrator and you and we cannot agree on a replacement, a court with jurisdiction will select the administrator or arbitrator, provided that no company may serve as administrator, without the consent of all parties, if it adopts or has in place any formal or informal policy that is inconsistent with and purports to override the terms of the Class Action Waiver in this Arbitration Agreement.

Powers and Qualifications of Arbitrators and Arbitration Procedures

All arbitrators will be required to be practicing attorneys or retired judges and will be required to be experienced and knowledgeable in the substantive laws applicable to the subject matter of the dispute. Any arbitration hearing that you attend will take place in a location that is reasonably convenient for you. If you cannot obtain a waiver of the AAA's or arbitrator's filing, administrative, hearing and/or other fees, we will consider in good faith any request by you for us to bear such fees. Each party will bear the expense of its own attorneys, experts and witnesses, regardless of which party prevails, unless applicable law or this Agreement gives a right to recover any of those fees from the other party. The arbitrator shall follow applicable substantive law to the extent consistent with the FAA, applicable statutes of limitation and privilege rules that would apply in a court proceeding, and shall be authorized to award all remedies available in an individual lawsuit under applicable substantive law, including, without limitation, compensatory, statutory and punitive damages (which shall be governed by the constitutional standards applicable in judicial proceedings), declaratory, injunctive and other equitable relief, and attorneys' fees and costs. Upon the timely request of either party, the arbitrator shall write a brief explanation of the basis of his or her award. The arbitrator's award will be final and binding, except for any appeal right under the FAA. Any court with jurisdiction may enter judgment upon the arbitrator's award.

Class Action Waiver

YOU AGREE NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE OR PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACTION AGAINST US IN COURT OR ARBITRATION. ALSO, YOU MAY NOT BRING CLAIMS AGAINST US ON BEHALF OF ANY ACCOUNTHOLDER. The arbitrator shall have no authority to conduct any class, private attorney general or other representative proceeding, and shall award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim. If a court determines that this paragraph is not fully enforceable, only this sentence will remain in force and the remainder will be null and void, and the court's determination shall be subject to appeal.

Rights Preserved

This Arbitration Agreement and the exercise of any of the rights you and we have under this Agreement, does not stop you or us from exercising any lawful rights either of us has to use other available remedies; to comply with legal process; to obtain provisional remedies such as injunctive relief, attachment or garnishment by a court of appropriate jurisdiction; or to bring an individual action in court that is limited to preventing the other party from using or obtaining any provisional or self-help remedies and that does not involve a request for damages or monetary relief.

In California

If an action or proceeding is initiated before any court in California and neither you nor we request that the dispute be submitted to arbitration, then, upon motion by either you or us, the dispute shall be heard by an active attorney or a retired judge selected by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) who is then appointed by the court in which the action commenced, according to the reference provision of the California Code of Civil Procedure, Section 638 et seq. This reference process is not subject to a trial by jury; the trial is conducted before the active attorney or retired judge under California law.

Enforcement

You or we may bring an action, including a summary or expedited motion, to compel arbitration of Claims subject to arbitration, or to stay the litigation of any Claims pending arbitration, in any court having jurisdiction. Such action may be brought at any time, even if such claims are part of a lawsuit, unless a trial has begun or a final judgment has been entered. Any dispute concerning the validity or enforceability of this Arbitration Agreement must be decided by a court; any dispute concerning the validity or enforceability of the Agreement as a whole is for the arbitrator. Failure or forbearance to enforce this Arbitration Agreement at any particular time or in connection with any particular Claims will not constitute a waiver of any rights to require arbitration at a later time or in connection with any other Claims. Any additional or different agreement between you and us regarding arbitration must be in writing. If either you or we fail to submit to binding arbitration following a lawful demand, the party who fails to submit bears all costs and expenses incurred by the party compelling arbitration.

Survival and Severability of Terms

This Arbitration Agreement shall survive: (1) termination or changes in the Agreement, the Account, or the relationship between you and us concerning the Account; (2) the bankruptcy of any party; and (3) any transfer, sale or assignment of your Account, or any amounts owed on your Account, to any other person or entity. If any portion of this Arbitration Agreement (except for the Class Action Waiver set forth above) is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the Arbitration Agreement shall remain in force. No portion of this Arbitration Agreement may be amended or waived absent a written agreement between you and us.

RIGHT TO REJECT:

You may reject this Arbitration Agreement by mailing a signed rejection notice to Robinhood Credit, Inc., 548 Market Street, Suite 30684, San Francisco CA 94104, Attn: Credit Card Arbitration Rejection Notice, within thirty (30) calendar days after your Account is opened. Any rejection notice must include your name, address, email address, telephone number and Account number. This is the only manner you can reject this section. If you do that, only a court may be used to resolve any Claim. If you reject this Arbitration Agreement, that will not affect any other provision of the Agreement.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS

Your Billing Rights - Keep This Document for Future Use.

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find a Mistake on Your Statement.

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: Robinhood Credit, Inc. 548 Market Street, Suite 30684, San Francisco, CA 94104, Attn: Credit Card Billing Dispute. You also may send an email to creditcards@robinhood.com, the subject line "DISPUTE".

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automatic payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

In order to exercise the rights described here, you must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may also inform us of potential errors via other methods, including in the Robinhood Credit Card app, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter.

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees.

We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within ten (10) days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases.

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we made to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at: Robinhood Credit, Inc., 548 Market Street, Suite 30684, San Francisco, CA 94104.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above under the section entitled "While we investigate whether or not there has been an error." After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
